

Dr. Amicitia (Cita) Maloon-Gibson BIG

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: ATIC & MG Center For Excellence & MGAA

Office: (321) 537-5002

July 26, 2009

Dr. Amicitia (Cita) Maloon-Gibson, President and CEO of ATIC & MG Center For Excellence & MGAA, Melbourne, Florida has been selected to present The Got Options! Making the Leap-“Back-up Your Back-up workshops at the 31st annual Blacks In Government (BIG) National Training Conference, August 24-28, 2009, Baltimore, Convention Center, 1 West Pratt Street, Baltimore, Maryland, 21201.

Dr. Gibson is a retired LT. Colonel from the United States Army with almost 30 years of military service with the United States Army. She holds a Bachelors Degree in Psychology (w/Distinction in Sociology), a Masters Degree in Management, a Masters Degree in Human Resources Development, and a Doctorate Degree in Social Psychology.

Dr. Gibson is a native of St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands and resides in Viera, Florida. ATIC & MG Center For Excellence & MGAA is Veteran and Women-Owned training and development company that specializes in Diversity and Inclusion, Leadership Development, Women and Youth Issues, and Empowerment and Growth of Future Leaders.

ATIC & MG Center For Excellence & MGAA

P.O. Box 411482

Melbourne, FL 32941-1482

Office: (321) 537-5002

Fax: (321) 256-0699

www.citagibson.com

www.mgc4e.org